Sir,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No 674 dated 13th December 1890, I have the honor to state that the District Magistrate himself does the duty of the Marriage Registrar, Anantapur, as there are no persons who are not likely to be transferred from this District eligible for the post for the present. I proposed that the Store Inspector Mr. E. E. Plowden to be nominated but the Inspector General of Police objects to the proposal.

In reply to Reference on C. A. 644 dated 11th March 1891, I have the honor to state that it is not desirable that Inspector Plowden should undertake the duties and responsibilities of a marriage Registrar

i. because a Police officer has enough to do if he attends to his own work properly and ii because it may interfere occasionally with his work on courts and similar duties for a day having been fixed for a wedding, it is presumed that it would be absolutely necessary for the Registrar to keep his appointment and this might at the time interfere inconveniently with his Police duties.
