SIR,

I AM directed to state, for that difficulties having often arisen in tracing the heirs of pilgrims to the Hedjaz dying out of British India, the column headed "Residence" in the Passport issued to them has been subdivided in order to shew—

- (a) the town or village,
- (b) the pargana or taluka, and
- (c) the district and province of the pilgrim.

2. A copy of the revised Passport is enclosed, and I am to request that instructions may be given to the officers issuing Passports to see that the details are correctly filled in. the necessary

3. Application should be made, as soon as possible, to this Department for as many copies of the Passport as may be required by the

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS,

Dated 5th January 1890.

From

Colonel J. Macdonald Smith

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS,

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.

SIR,

/ Enclosure.

In accordance with the instructions contained in G.O. No 1360 dated 15th August 1890 (Confidential) I have the honor to enclose for the information of Government a letter I have received this day from Mr. G. J. James the Supr. of Prisons for the Town of Madras. Mr. James has elected to pass through the Insolvent Court. This entails Mr. James suspension, and I await the orders of Govt. as to whether he is to be suspended or not.

In case of his suspension I beg to submit the name of Mr. D. A. McReady the Supr. of the Dist. Jail at Tanjore as the most fit man to act for Mr. James. Mr. McReady has done most valuable service in working up the manufactures of his jail and in keeping down expenditure and he understands the work of the Penitentiary thoroughly. He has gone into the question of the Govt. press here and would be of great service to me and the Govt. in making out the new system of press work we propose submitting to Govt. Mr. Symonds the Supr. of the Central Jail at Salem, in point of seniority, should have the Penitentiary, but he was removed from there by Govt. some years ago.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. Macdonald Smith: Col.
