FOR ORDERS.

name not yet seen 10th proposal for Mr. Nicholson had better I think take his leave. Endeavouring might be made to build him in a station his return

Res
bapt

I think it will be advantageous to keep Mr. Nicholson in the country if possible & before presenting the leave which for W. act on H.E.'s proposal & offer Mr. Nichol. the option of coming here on special duty.

Stg

If it is decided to place Mr. Nicholson on Special Duty as proposed by H.E. the fact he might perhaps not wish to take leave at any rate at present

4
6 April

There is a proposal concerning the appointment of a special agent to be sent to investigate the conditions of the country and the people.

I Henry Hyde District Surgeon Tinnevely do hereby certify that Mr. Frederick A. Nicholson, Madras Civil Service is in a bad state of health & I solemnly & sincerely declare that according to the best of my judgment a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery & do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to Europe
