From

J. C. Hannington Esq
Resident in Travancore and Cochin,

To

The Honourable J. F. Price
Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George

Sir,

With reference to Government Order Public Department No 235 dated 9th Instant, I have the honor to state that Captain Gwen Wynn Gray was deported from Travancore in 1877 and since then has resided at Angengo. He became ill there and was admitted into the Tri-vandrum Hospital on 5th February/91 and died there on 24th February/91 at the age of 72.

2. He had no occupation beyond endeavouring to establish a claim for certain money which he claimed to be due to the estate of a man named Cobden to whose will he appears to have been executor. The claim however was held to be barred by limitation.

3. His wife and I believe a daughter reside at Ramore, County Waterford, Ireland. He was in some way

6

way connected with Mr Pennell late Deputy Collector Cuddalore.
 The day he was taken ill he made a will naming as executrix a Mrs Blair who resides at Angengo (Malabar District) and this will is in her possession.
 A box containing some property of small value and some papers was handed over to the Submagistrate of Angengo who under directions from the District Judge of South Malabar has taken charge of his property.

I have the honor to be
 Sir

Your Most Obedient Servant

 Resident.

My dear Power

As it is not stated what "further particulars" are required of the late Capt O W Gray I am at a loss what to say. The following however may contain what is needed.

Capt Gray was the son of Colonel O W Gray of H Ind's 33rd Regt, who raised the Naval Brigade originally I commanded it for many years. Capt Gray also served in the 33rd Regt, & after retiring served on the staff of his cousin Sir George Grey, then Governor of New Zealand. After that he lived in England for some time, & came to India about 18 years ago to try & recover some landed property given to his father by the Rajah of Travancore some time at the beginning of this century. After long litigation in the Travancore Courts he recovered the property, of which he retained possession as far as I know.

His wife is related to Mr Power, M.P. for Co Waterford, with whose family she resides at Tramore, near Waterford, but he had no children.

I return the papers you sent me.

Yours sincerely

P A Cole
