How often...

Hum.

For orders. The case is special. Similar presents were apparently given to officials in other Provinces. If necessary India C. Co. asked what was done in the case of Bengal men. Copies of go. put up were not immediately available, hence the delay.

No. 329 of 24th April 91
To the Secy. to the G. of S. Home Dept.

Sir, I am directed to inform you that H. J. H. the Casarawitah forwarded from Ceylon to two officers of the Madras Police Dept. a silver cigarette case such as a souvenir of his visit. I am to submit for orders the question whether these officers may, as a special case, be permitted to keep the presents, and to say that this form has no objection to doing so.

My dear Price -

H. J. H. the President has, from Legation, sent Madras and Kelgum a silver cigarette case each, as a souvenir of his visit to Madras and Madura - Is there any objection to these officers accepting such souvenirs?

Yrs. Sincerely
Chas. S. Cottrell
