Simla, the April 1891.

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. ¹¹⁸⁹⁰/₉₉ Perak, dated the 6th December last, forwarding a copy of a letter* from Mr. J. A.

* Dated the 18th November 1890.

Legge, an Apothecary on the Madras Establishment now serving under the Government of the Straits Settlements, regarding his pensionary position in the event of his resigning his appointment in the Subordinate Medical Department, Madras.

2. In reply I am to say that if Mr. Legge elects to remain permanently in the service of the Government of the Straits Settlements, his claim to pension for services rendered in India will be determined, when the time for his eventual retirement arrives, with reference to the provisions of Article† 517 of the Civil Service Regulations. On the other hand, should Mr. Legge decide to continue under the existing arrangement by which his services are lent temporarily to the Colonial Government, he will retain the privileges attaching to his position in the service.

† Copy attached.

I am to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor, it may be explained to Mr. Legge that he is at liberty to follow either of these two alternative courses, and that he may be asked to decide which he elects to follow.

3. I am at the same time to forward, for the information of the Government of the Straits Settlements, a copy of the communication marginally noted, relative to the permanent transfer of Warrant Medical Officers on the Madras Establishment from the Military to the Civil Department, and to say that, for the reasons stated in it, the orders contained in Home Department letter No. ³/₁₄₁, dated the 17th April 1886, should also be considered as cancelled. A special exception will, however, if he desires it, be made in Mr. Legge's case as above explained.

Letter No. 4931 D., dated the 31st December 1890, from the Military Department, to the Government of Madras.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

C. J. LYALL,

Secretary to the Government of India.

Article 517 of the Civil Service Regulations.

An Officer, not being a Military Officer or a Covenanted Civil Servant, transferred to service under a Colonial Government, on final retirement from the Colonial service on pension or compensation allowance, receives, at the charge of the Indian Revenues, for each completed year of qualifying and uninterrupted service in India, a pension of one-sixtieth of his average emoluments at the time of his transfer, such average emoluments to be calculated for the last five years, or, if the whole service in India is less than five years, for the whole period of service. The pension is subject to a maximum limit of Rs. 2,000 a year for an Indian service not exceeding ten years and Rs. 4,000 a year in any other case.
