Lord Wenlock K.C.B.
Governor of Madras

My Lord.

Wenlock sheweth

That your Petitioner has served as draftsman in Revenue Survey Office for a period of 23 years and was dismissed without any fault. That your Petitioner had the misfortune to countersign for two other officials of the same office and they went in for the benefit of the Act of Insolvency and your Petitioner was arrested and put in jail for the debt contracts by his fellow officials. The Superintendent was rather hasty in dismissing me without making due enquiries into the matter. If the Supt is justified in dismissing me how did Linch Col. and H. O. C. Curdson, Esq. etc.

to benefit of the Act of Jm. on There are men now in office doing duty who have been filling the shoes and why should I be excluded from the list All that ask for is a gratuity to enable me to support myself wife and 4 children and not be thrown out in the streets to suffer want and misery for which act of Charity and benevolence your Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.
