The Chief Secretary

to the Government of Madras

12

Colonel Harris, the British Consul at Pondicherry and Karikal, having handed over charge of his office on the afternoon of the 26th ultimo, I have the honor to request you to be so kind as to cause an order to be passed placing me in charge of the British Consular Agency at Karikal, to enable me to sign Pass Bills &c of this office.

2. I take this opportunity to inform you that I have on several occasions been in, independent charge of this office under special orders of Government, during the time the special Consul Agent for Kanikal was on special duty and on leave - (Case vide G.O. No. 1318 of the 24th June 1886, Public; and on two occasions after the cessation of Pondicherry and Karikal were amalgamated, and placed under one officer - Please vide G.O. No. 926 of the 22nd August 1887, and G.O. No. 346 of the 10th May 1890. Financial ^{Public} 3. Out of several letters which were written to Government by the British Consular Agents in favour of myself, I have the honor to enclose, herewith, for your information, and for favorable consideration, extracts from two letters only addressed by Colonel Fischer.

4. I joined this office in April 1871, and completed twenty
(20) years' service; and I have the honor to forward, herewith, copies of Testimonials given to me by different Consular Agents, under whose observation I was, regarding the manner in which I have discharged the duties during the past 20 years of Consular Service.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

J. Abbasowmy Esq: Representative of H.B. M's Consular Agent in charge British Consular Agency at Karikal

Extract from letter No 1858 of the 25th July 1886 addressed by Colonel Fischer, the British Consular Agent, to the Chief Secretary to Government, published in G.O. No. 1318 of the 14th June 1886 Public.

13. I have frequently said - and I see no reason to alter this opinion - that the duties of the Karikal Agency are far more onerous in Emigration matters (of which the Burma and the Straits passenger traffic forms a large part) than those at Pondicherry; and when my direct personal influence is removed from Karikal (as it will be by the end of this month) it is not certain that the difficulties I have had to contend against will become less apparent. Under these circumstances, the very best man to take my place is undoubtedly Mr J. Abbasowmy Esq., who joined this office shortly after I did in 1871, was with me all through the Straits Settlements and Burma Emigration disputes, and has served Government with unwavering fidelity and distinguished zeal for nearly 15 continuous years. I have over and over again had occasion to bring Mr Abbasowmy Esq's conduct to the favorable consideration of Government, and I often now a record of his services showing the number of times he has been virtually independent or quasi-independent charge of this office - but the more important these occasions he drew a special allowance of 50 rupees per annum in addition to his own salary. + + +

J. Appasawmy Dev: Representative of H.M.'s Consular Agent, in charge British Consular Agency at Kankab.

2. Extract from letter No. 202 of the 2nd April 1888 addressed by Colonel Fischer, the British Consular Agent to Government, published in L.R. No. 773-775 of the 4th August 1888. Public + + +

17. + + That if Government should again find it necessary to revert to the state of things that obtained before the Consular Agents were selected from the staff corps, they would find two most capable men, in every way fitted to fulfil the greatly diminished responsibilities of the Pondicherry and Kankab offices in Mr. Appasawmy Dev and Mr. Mootiah Krishna Rao.

of H.M.'s Consular Agent Pondicherry Kankab in charge British Consular Agency at Kankab.

3. Copy of Testimony recorded by Major Thomas Fischer in the Service Book of Mr. J. Appasawmy Dev:- A young gentleman of very respectable family, of independent means, and of independent character. Thoroughly honest, straight-forward, and truthful, active, alert, intelligent; with a very high sense of duty. A most devoted subordinate: utterly willing, not afraid of responsibility and capable of very great self sacrifice, of most extraordinary exertion when the occasion calls for this display an accomplished and ready linguist; an admirable penman; a very quick, keen official; tireless of the work of his office; and in fact, as far as ~~far as~~ his opportunities go, a most zealous and valuable servant of the state. 1st April 1878.

4. Copy of Testimony recorded by Major Thomas
in the Service Book of Mr. J. Appasawmy Dev:-

I have great pleasure in endorsing the above noble testimonial of Major Fischer regarding this truly able and honest subordinate. He has been under my observation for a few months; I have always found him most willing and able; I consider him too good for so small a position as a Government servant here, but trust, in time, he will be promoted, as he richly deserves it; and he richly deserves an increase of pay. Kankab 23-12-78.

Copy of Testimony recorded by Major E. W. Shaw in the Service Book of Mr. T. Abbasowmy Iyer:-

Before handing over charge of the office of the British Consular Agent at Kankal I wish to bear testimony to the many excellent qualities of Mr. T. Abbasowmy Iyer as Clerk. During the time I have held the appointment of Consular Agent I have invariably found him to be most attentive to his duties, zealous and trustworthy; and I have had no hesitation in placing the greatest confidence in him. Should he receive advancement hereafter, I feel certain that he will be found to be well worthy of it. Kankal: 23-4-81.
