 and files of replies from District Magistrates on the subject of bringing into force Act III of 1889.

ORDER—dated 11th May 1891, No. 913, Judicial.

The papers read above contain the lists called for by Government from all District Magistrates in regard to (i) the local areas in which Madras Act III of 1889 is to be brought into force, and (ii) the names of those appointed to be special magistrates for the trial of offences falling under section 48 of Act XXIV of 1859, which will be repealed on the new Act coming into operation; they contain also applications from various District Magistrates for the appointment of certain additional special magistrates.

2. The three notifications attached to these proceedings have been framed after due consideration, but as errors and omissions are doubtless to be found in them, the Government desires that all District Magistrates will scrutinize such portions as relate to their own districts with great care and at once notify to Government all amendments found requisite, explaining at the same time the necessity for them; all such communications must be submitted to the Chief Secretary to Government.

in such time as will allow of their reaching him before the 1st June. The notifications as finally amended will be published in three successive issues of the Fort St. George Gazette in English, the last publication taking place before the 1st July, on which date it is intended that the Act shall come into force. The Inspector-General of Registration will be requested to give particular attention to the Notifications relating to the investment of Registrars and Sub-Registrars with magisterial powers and to supply at once the information necessary to render them complete. The Inspector-General will also report whether he has any objection to the investiture of the Sub-Registrar of Sulúr (Coimbatore) with magisterial powers.

3. In the following cases, the extension of the Act to towns at a distance of more than 5 miles from a magistrate's court has been recommended, but the Government is not disposed to vary in any way the restrictions imposed by G.O., dated 10th February 1890, No. 230, Judicial, and these towns have therefore been excluded from the notification of local areas:—

Districts.	Towns.
Anantapur	Pamidi, Guntakal and Timmancherla.
Cuddapah	Vontimitta.
Ganjam	Báruva and Balligutta with Ballidi.
Malabar	Kalpetta, Sultan's Battery, Malpadi, Pagha- yangadi, Kolangód, Vadakanchal, Koroth and Panamaram.
Nellore	Buchireddipalayam.
Salem	Shendamangalam, Thathayangarpatt including Pillathurai, Morupatti, Mohanur, Yedapadi, Pallipalayam (Inam and Government), Ko- marapalayam (Inam and Government), Alan- gayam, Matrapalli, Mettur alias Motur, Na- trampalli, Kandili, Kunnathur, Singarapett, Kallavi, Kadathur, Pallipatti, Kelamanga- lam, Thali, Kávéripattam, Mathur, Pálakód and Karimangalam.
Tanjore	Tiruppugalur, Tiruchankattangudi and Tiruk- kannapuram.
Tinnevely	Kayatur, Muthalapuram, Kanniseri, Sivakási, Kalugumalai, Sivalaperi, Thirupudaimaru- dur, Pottalpudur, Pápanásam and Tirukurun- gudi.

The villages of Gurrampad, Chinnarachapalli and Rachenayyapalli, in the district of Cuddapah, have also been excluded, as they appear to be included in the Union of Chennai.

4. In the case of the following places, in which the periodical temporary enforcement of the Act was recommended; it has been found impossible to fix the date of the festival during which the Act is to be brought into operation with sufficient accuracy, and they have therefore been omitted from the lists now published:—

Nellore	Madanur, Pattupalayam, Itamukkali and Palli- palayam.
Chingleput	Cheyúr and Tirupórá.

In these and similar instances the District Magistrate must apply specially to Government upon each occasion when the occurrence of a festival or fair renders the temporary introduction of the Act into any locality necessary.

5. Strict orders should be given to all officers concerned that no prosecution shall be instituted in any locality to which the Act has been temporarily extended for some special occasion, unless a magistrate is present at the time of such institution in such locality.

6. In the list submitted by the District Magistrate of Godávári, the villages of Kotipalli and Antervadi appear, but the District Magistrate seems to recommend that the Act should be enforced there only during the occurrence of certain festivals; he has, however, failed to specify the names and dates of the festivals to which he refers, and these villages have therefore been omitted from the notification.
