GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the Stationery Office might be instructed to supply me with two scales for weighing parcels and letters.

2:- I have already applied to that office, but am informed that the latter kind only is kept, and supplied to Hospitals and not to other departments.

3:- At present, I send my parcels of plans and letters to the post office to be weighed, but a postmaster is not obliged to perform this duty. When I am out in camp, and
