No. 4252

Govt Press, Madras,
19th Dec. 1890Office Note

The Superintendent Government Press submits for orders the second application of Mr. E. A. Hawkins, Examiner for reinstatement after passing through the Insolvent Court, and having obtained a full discharge from his liabilities. Mr. Hawkins was suspended on the 6th October last, and during his suspension he has drawn Rs. 10 per mensem as subsistence allowance.

2. When Mr. Hawkins took the benefit of the act in August 1887, his pay was Rs. 30 per mensem; his liabilities were Rs. 584-15-0, and the reason for seeking relief was that he had signed promissory notes jointly with his father with whom he was then living, and who subsequently took the benefit of the act; on this ground his case was favorably recommended to Govt.

3. On his restoration in January 1888, an increase of Rs. 5 was given to him; in December of the same year he received another increase of Rs. 5, and had he not taken the benefit of the act in October last, he would have received a further increase of Rs. 5 from the 1st of this month.

4. The reasons assigned for his indebtedness after restoration are, the small subsistence allowance (one fourth of his salary Rs. 7-8-0) whilst under suspension in 1887; receiving only half pay (Rs. 17-8-0) during an illness of 46 days in 1888 and 1889; and his illness in May 1890, when he drew full pay; besides, the ordinary illnesses in his family.

5. During the three years between the two insolvencies, Mr. Hawkins has incurred debts to the extent of Rs. 756-4-10, of which Rs. 660-8-5 were incurred in the present year. He states that he has only received one fourth of the moneys shown as debts.

6. From enquiries made, the undersigned can find no satisfactory cause for the debts incurred by Mr. Hawkins in so short a time, and for his seeking the relief of the court from the same.

7. It may be stated in his favor that his conduct in office has been good, and he has always endeavoured to do his work carefully and well.

Though this is the main second instance, he does not appear to have been interviewed in the money which he received was for his share he signed his notes for and knew being in the reasonable ground cause for the difficulties with which he has fallen. It is submitted that he may be reinstated in consideration of what Mr. Hile says in his favour with the warning that if he has a further recourse to the Court he will be removed from the service

Submitting for orders
Mr. Hawkins' application for reinstatement.

I would not reinstate him. He has run up in 3 years liabilities in excess of those in his former bank ruptcy. He seems to have been ready to sign anything to get more He seldom received more than half the amount of the prov. notes he issued & if this is not extravagant I don't know what is. Mr. Hile says he can find no satisfactory explanation of the man's indebtedness. It seems to me an aggravated case and to reinstate that the man would be to offer a danger on the continuance of the dept which we want to put down
