Paying that the names

To

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR
IN COUNCIL
FORT ST. GEORGE
MADRAS.

The humble petitioner Venkooboi, widow of the late C. Swamy Row residing in Bellary.

Most Respectfully and humbly sheweth.

That with profound submission most respectfully begs to submit the following for your Excellency's favourable consideration

1. That your petitioner's husband, the late C. Swamy Row, and one C. Bhogappah are uterine brothers; that they belong to an exceptionally good family of State Bankers to His Highness, the late Peshwa of Poona; and that the meritorious Political Services rendered by their fathers to the British Government are well known from the despatches of the Duke of Wellington.

2. That the petitioner's husband died in Bellary in 1884 leaving the petitioner, a daughter, and three sons; viz. Triabaka Row, Govinda Row, and Bheemasaina Row, the two latter being minors of about 15 & 10 years of age are under her (Petitioner's) protection, and the elder son, Bheema Row, was appointed to the office of Assistant Commissioner in the Assigned Districts of His Highness the Nizam, by Government of India upon the recommendation of Sir Richard Meade, the Chief Commissioner of Mysore, on the ground that the grand-father of petitioner's husband and of C. Bhogappah, had rendered his meritorious services to the Poona State. That the said Bheema Row subsequently died in the year 1885; and that his younger brother, Sama Row, has been provided with an appointment of Attachee while he was as an unpassed candidate, and he is now appointed to the office of Assistant Commissioner in the said Districts after passing the required examination

3. That your petitioner begs to submit for the favourable consideration of this merciful Government the printed copies of two letters written by the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Viceroy, to the address of C. Bhogappah, the younger brother of your petitioner's husband, which form an important portion of the extract from the Duke of Wellington's despatches.

4. That your petitioner further begs to submit that her minor sons, Govinda Row, and Bheemasaina Row, are now in school, and are equally entitled to the favourable consideration by this Government on the same ground that befitted the Government of India to show favour to the sons of C. Bhogappah; in as much as her minor sons and the sons of the same family; that in one respect, petitioner's will stand in the way of special consideration in favour of her helpless children; and that there is no one to look to her minor sons' future prospect and advancement but this merciful Government whom your petitioner fully and sincerely trusts.

That what your petitioner would most humbly and respectfully solicit, is that the names of her minor sons, Govinda Row and Bheemasaina Row might be recommended to the Government for consideration of being provided with some suitable qualification.

5. And that your humble petitioner, in these circumstances bows down and earnestly and humbly craves that this Government will be graciously pleased to give due consideration to her petition and to enter her son's names upon the register of those referred to and for the favourable consideration of the Government.
