Despatch from the Right Honorable Lord CROSS, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 24th December 1890, No. 8, (Public).

I have to inform your Excellency in Council that Her Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable the Lord Wenlock to be Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George at Madras.

2. I transmit, for the information of the Government of Madras, a copy of Lord Wenlock's Commission from Her Majesty.

(Signed) VICTORIA, R. & I.

VICTORIA by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, Empress of India, to Our Right Trusty and Well Beloved BEILBY, Baron WENLOCK.

GREETING,

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second years of Our Reign, intituled "An Act for the better Government of India," It is enacted that the appointments of Governor-General of India, Fourth Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor-General of India and Governors of Our Presidencies in India shall be made by Us by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual.

Now know you, that We, reposing especial trust and confidence in the fidelity, prudence, justice, and circumspection of you, have nominated, made, constituted and appointed, and by these presents do nominate, make, constitute and appoint you, the said Baron Wenlock, to be Governor of Our Presidency of Fort St. George at Madras, in the East Indies, and for all Our affairs in that Presidency, and at all other places, and for all such affairs, as are now subject to the Government of, or are managed at or in Our said Presidency of Fort St. George at Madras and of all and singular the Forts, Factories, Settlements, Lands, Territories, Countries, Places, and Provinces thereunto belonging, or which now are or shall from time to time be subject to Our said Presidency; and to execute all and every the powers and authorities committed or given to the Governor of Our said Presidency of Fort St. George at Madras, by or under or in virtue of a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session held in the third and fourth years of the Reign of His late Majesty, King WILLIAM THE FOURTH, intituled "An Act for effecting an arrangement with the East India Company and for the better Government of His Majesty's Indian Territories, till the Thirtieth day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four," or under any other Act of Parliament now in force. And We do hereby authorize and empower you, the said Beilby Baron Wenlock, to take upon you, hold, and enjoy the said Office upon your arrival in the said Presidency, and to continue in the exercise of the said Office during Our Will and Pleasure, subject nevertheless to the superintending and controlling power vested in Our Governor-General of India in Council as by the said Act of Parliament of His said late Majesty, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force is provided; and also subject to such instructions and directions as you, the said Bailby Baron Wenlock, shall, as the Governor or Governor in Council of Our said Presidency, from time to time receive under the hand of one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and we do hereby order and require all Our Servants, Officers and Soldiers within the limits of Our said Presidency, and all the people and Inhabitants of Our said Fort St. George and City of Madraspatnam to recognize you, the said Bailby Baron Wenlock, as Governor of Our said Presidency, and to submit themselves accordingly in conformity with Law.

Given at Our Court at Osborne this 28th day of December, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and ninety, and in the 54th year of Our reign.

(By Her Majesty's Command.)

(Signed) CROSS.

ORDER—dated 23rd January 1891, No. 64, Public.

The Right Honorable the Lord Wenlock having arrived, the Commission under the Sign Manual, bearing date the 28th December 1890, constituting him Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George and its Dependencies, is read, and His Excellency takes his seat under the usual salute.

2. Ordered that the following Proclamation be published:—

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the Right Honorable Sir Beilby Lawley, Baron Wenlock, has been appointed by the Queen to be Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George at Madras and its Dependencies; it is hereby proclaimed that His Excellency has, on the day of the date hereof, received charge of the said Office of Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George and its Dependencies, and has taken his seat accordingly.

3. Ordered also that the Proclamation and the Warrant of Appointment be formally read at the head of the Troops in Fort St. George under a salute of seventeen guns and three volleys of small arms, and at the head of the Troops in the different Garrisons and at the several Stations of the Army with the usual ceremonies.

4. The Military Department will issue the necessary orders.
