the treasure by public auction.

2. The Superintendent of the Government Central Museum, Madras, has informed me that the coins are not required for the Museum.

3. I would suggest that the treasure might be sold by public auction at the Treasury, the armbands in one lot, the varahas singly, and the other coins in 6-sets of 10 and 1 of 6 and 4 each. They are more likely to fetch bidders if divided.

To,

The Chief Secretary
to Government

Madras.

Sir,

With reference to the notification under Act VI of 1878, published in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 27th January 1891, Part II, page 87, regarding a treasure found in the Vendipalayam village, Erode Taluk, and to my Proceedings in the matter — (copy enclosed), I have the honor to state that, for the reasons given in my order the treasure vests in Her Majesty under section 20 of the said act, and to request, under Rule IV (section 12(b)) of the Government notification, dated 7th September 1878, the orders of the Government as to silver annals.

treasure.

2. No one else has appeared to claim it.

3. The ~~Mag~~ collector also declares the treasure "ownerless", it not being shown that it was hidden by any particular person, or within one hundred years prior to the date of finding.

4. The Superintendent of the Central Museum in Madras will be asked whether he requires any of the coins for the museum, before taking the orders of Government as to the sale.

5. The finders are liable to prosecution under section 20 both for not giving notice of their find, and, one of them (Kannudayan), for altering the treasure. The ~~Mag~~ Joint Magistrate is requested to direct their prosecution
