asking to arrange for extra copies of reports on Newspapers as was done in Lord Conemara's time.

First to Mr. and you can take out the spare copy.
The Madras Reports however are distributed by the Press and will come to you direct. Your Office could doubtless arrange to make the an spare copies. If you like I will ask

My dear Recd,

With reference to your O.O. of the 11th regarding Native Newspapers Reports, I have telegraphed to Bengal & Bombay asking them to send copies for Mr. in future. I understand they have issued to the Supd. Genl Press to supply you with a copy of the Madras Reports. I am afraid I will not be possible to get the back numbers for this year but perhaps you do not want those. I can send you a set of the back numbers from those kept in the office. As regards sending the spare copies with the current copies this will be possible in the case of the Bengal & Bombay future.

you and then you will know that the reports which reach you from any other source but the office are intended for you alone. This seems to me the safest plan to adopt in order to avoid double reading.

I don't quite follow ^{the} your remark at the end of your letter regarding "special copies for His reference". We only get one copy each from Bengal & Bombay & these are bound here.

Yours sincerely

Will you kindly if it causes no inconvenience to let me have extra of reports on newspapers was done in Lord Conner time and could the extra be sent at the same time as the current copies?
That case it would avoid going over them twice, think spare copies.
