Bm
CHIEF SECRETARY
12 AUG 91
Sir, I beg to inform you that H. M. S. "Blanche" arrived here day before yesterday night.
Yesterday, two of the sailors being ill
the Commander sent for a Doctor it seems
and Mr Henderson
a British Pensioned Apothecary attended on board. Last evening when I saw the Commander he told me

that Mr Henderson
was of opinion that it was an attack
of Cholera and requested me to fetch
the Chief Doctor of the place on board
this morning as he wished to have another opinion.
Accordingly I requested
Monsieur Léon Canolle
Chef du Service de Santé who was kind enough

enough to go on board at 8
this morning; &
the Commander informed that those two persons were dead last night and that he was to leave immediately for Trincomalee.

2. The vessel sailed
at 10 A.M.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obt. Servt.
