My dear Galton,

The act: General refuses to pass anything but an up country Collis pay (233354) for the time I have been on special duty, that is, from the 19th June until the 3rd Aug. so that I lose R600 a month by not having reverted to my own appointment. I do not think Govt. meant this to be the case.

with the increased allowance sanctioned by the Protector of Emigrants the Madras Collis pay is now exactly the same as that of an acting 3rd or 4th member of the Board viz
Rs
2933-5-4.

Will you kindly therefore sanction a deputation allowance of Rs 600 a month and a member's travelling allowance of Rs 10 a day being sanctioned and information to Act. General.

I am not above taking compensation for damaged garments and the shock sustained by crossing the Gopalgurur surf with the surf flag flying and by having been shut up for a week on board a coasting B. I steamer with a madman; but you may consider the damage too remote!

I find the Income Tax work in the 3 districts very bad. J. S. S. S.

NOTACAMUND,

August 1901.

My Dear Mr. Mathers.

Your D.O. of the 5th instant has been considered by the Government, and I am directed to tell you that an order granting you the maximum deputation allowance under Section 98 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations will will shortly issue, but that nothing further can be done.

The allowance of the Protector of Emigrants is purely local and Government cannot ^{authorize} ^{that} ~~diminish~~ the pay of the Chairman's allowance on the present occasion. Nor is it possible for you to have the travelling allowance of a Member of the Board of Revenue.

Yours Sincerely

Y
18 Sept.

J. J. Macleod Esq. & Co.

O/O dated 5 August 90

For orders.

The case is peculiar.
 Mr Mc Wakers ^{would not draw} ~~draw~~ as collector ... 2,333
 " Chairman ... 400
 " Protector of Immigrants ... 200 2,933

While acting in the Board his emoluments were 2,333
 $\frac{1}{5}$ of 3,000 600 2,933

While on special duty he cannot draw more than the Act. Genl. has passed unless the Act is repealed of part of the Chairman's pay, & even in that case would be a sufferer.
 All 2's pay ... 2,333
 $\frac{1}{5}$ Chairman's pay ... 200 Deputy's allowance under § 98(a) ... 300 2,833

Mr Mc Wakers is not to receive on leave and I don't think an order dividing the allowance can be issued under it on the present occasion.
 The Protector of Immigrants' allowance is a much smaller one.
 I don't think anything can be done for Mr Mc Wakers except to give him a gratuity allowance at 10% a day for the time he is absent.
 He cannot leave the territory of a member of the Board without the sanction of the President of the State.

He is not.

With travelling allowance at 7/6 per day = 225 N. a month & 10% for representation allowance & his salary for 12 months = 2,333 2,333 + 300 + 225 = 2,858. I don't see how we can help him beyond this. His locomotive will get 75 N. a month more.
 16/8/91 L.S.

x its in the case
 recorded in J.O. No.
 410:25 Nov 2/90.

He must lose his Protector's allowance of $ 200 under § 78 of the C. & R. which rules that if an officer is absent on deputation on special duty for more than a month, he is not entitled to draw a local allowance for any part of the ~~period~~ absence.

There is no way out of it, & the division of the Chairman's pay in this case seems very questionable; it was different in the circumstances under which J.O. No. 410: 25 Jan^y 90, was passed.

If that pay is not divided, Mr. McMillen must lose at the rate of $200 a month while on special duty.

Still - hard though this is, these are the unlucky accidents in a man's service.
Moreover, the life is not quite as bad as it appears in paper. The Protector's allowance need not be

The Secy. of State's despatch will have been dated (& received by the Govt of India) July.

Rs. 100; it was raised to Rs. 200 last month. Mr. McWatters never drew the enhanced allowance, & if the whole Chairman's pay is £30 & Mr. Austin will be £200 drawn, Rs. 200 less than what he used to draw as collector - not Rs. 300 less.
