the Superintendent of stamps the Board does not think it necessary to remove the debtor from his appointment.

3. In G. O. 25. April 1891 No: 331 Public it was ruled that the question as to whether Government servants taking advantage of the act should be suspended should be left to the adjudication of Heads of Departments. The Board takes this opportunity to suggest that a similar delegation of powers might perhaps be made in cases falling under the G. O. quoted in para 1 above, in which the Insolvency Court has not ^{yet} been reached.

Recommendation of Supt.
of Stamps & Board of Rev:
is that the man be continued in service.

The suggestion in para: 3 of the Board's Pros. is not understood. G.O. 3.2.88, No. 134, contains no direction for the suspension of an individual whose case is to be dealt with under it - and it is always in the power of the head of an office to suspend a subordinate if he considers it would be to the detriment of the public service to permit him to continue his duties.

The man appears to be very much in the hands of some one and to have much chance of getting out of them unless he goes to the Insolvent Court
