OOTACAMUND,

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF JAIL'S OFFICE,

21st August 1891.

My dear Sir

I have had no report that Mr. Doss under sentence of death has died of Cholera. It is not usual to report the names of prisoners that die.
If you wish I will write and find out.

Please let me know if Cavendish wants to take his leave from 20th may hand over charge to Dr. Herbert Wilkins. I think that Herbert Wilkins as Dist. Surgeon may be required to turn into the & the Governor.

through North Creek and that Cavendish should not take his leave till that town is over, and Hackett Wilkins can remain in charge of the Jail

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE
(REVENUE SETTLEMENT, LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE).

MR. CLOGSTOUN.

READ—the following letter from W. J. H. LE FANU, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Revenue Settlement and Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture, dated Kuppam, 9th August 1891, No. 87-Camp.

I am of opinion that the time has come in this district in which effect should be given to section 15 of the Famine Code. An experienced officer, whose name I cannot mention, as he has coupled his letter with a generous offer of assistance, writing from Wandiwash says:—

“It appeared to me that the signs of distress have certainly tightened. From the south-west extremity of Pólur taluk, all along the south, to the south-east extremity of Wandiwash the dry crops are an utter failure, and the ryots appear to have lost heart in most cases to keep alive the ragi plots they had planted out * * *. I was struck to-day with the famished appearance of the poor little children on their way to the kanji thotti, or Annadana chattram, as they would like it termed in Kálahasti, and many of them have developed blains, or ‘famine sores.’ This points to the necessity perhaps of a change in diet.”

2. I have noticed bad cases also in Kálahasti, e.g., the dying child at Raipedu and the old Reddi at Aré, in which our diet was wholly unsuitable. The only concession which is allowed in kitchen is the substitution of rice for ragi, and even this does not meet the want of bad cases. Though there is a general complaint that the kitchen ration is insufficient, there are many cases in which people cannot eat the rations from sickness, and beg that, once a day, kanji may be substituted for the grain rations. The Code makes no provision for the sickly in kitchens, though it does for them in camps. I do not think that the time for camps has yet come; but I am certain that the time has come when some modification of the kitchen diet is desirable. What this modification should be it is for a professional man to determine. I could manage to carry out any alleviations in diet prescribed in Wandiwash, but I despair of being able to do so in Kálahasti, where the village officers are so churlish, the bazaarmen supply only as a favour and under pressure, and proper superintendence is almost impossible to procure.

3. I consider that it is desirable that the District Surgeon should tour continually in the affected tracts and have a free hand to make such alterations in the kitchen diet as he may think fit on professional grounds. The step which I now recommend is one which the Famine Code prescribes to be taken at an early period of famine distress. The early period is, I think, already past. I view the appearance of the well-known famine ulcer as a serious sign, well-known to all experienced Famine officers. When they appear the physique of the people must be considerably below par, and active steps are necessary.

RESOLUTION—dated 12th August 1891, No. 516.

Submitted for the information of Government.

2. The Collector should request the District Surgeon to pay an early visit to the Wandiwash kitchens, and to report upon the influence of the sanctioned diet on the condition of the recipients of relief. The District Surgeon should at the same time be authorised to sanction in cases demanding special treatment under medical care, the special diet prescribed in section 189 of the Code wherever he is satisfied that suitable arrangements can be made for its distribution. His written orders should be given in all cases where the issue of a special diet is sanctioned.

3. The Collector states in paragraph 2 that there is a general complaint that the kitchen ration is insufficient, and he observes that there are many cases in which people cannot eat the ration from sickness, and beg that once a day kanji may be substituted. If, however, by kanji is meant ragi kanji or a kanji made of a mixture of rice and ragi, there is no objection whatever to the sanctioned ration being issued in this form. As regards the general sufficiency or otherwise of the ration, the Commissioner would have been glad of the Collector's opinion after his experience in Kálahasti. At the kitchens visited by the Commissioner at Alageripet, Panapak and Maderpak in the Kálahasti zemindari, the Commissioner saw ample reason to be satisfied with the condition of the people in the kitchens, and the Commissioner learns from the Collector of Chingleput that the ragi diet has been found most beneficial in his district.

4. The famine sores witnessed by the Collector's correspondent in Wandiwash may have been the result of a too long exclusion from the kitchen, but it is unlikely that they are due to full meals of ragi.

Sir,

With reference to Board's Proceedings, No: 516, dated 12th August 1891 (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture), the District Surgeon now represents a difficulty in going to inspect, as he should take charge of the Central Jail while Mr. Canendish takes ^{privilege} leave. I had applied for an extra medical Officer with reference to para 15 of the Famine Code. The Commissioners did not support this, and suggested that Dr. Hackett Wilkins should inspect. This he cannot do, if he is to be in charge of the Jail. We have, also, a very severe epidemic of Cholera in the district, the deaths being already already over 2300. I do not think it possible that the District Surgeon could be spared for jail duty at present, and as the Joint Magistrate's Taluqs are in a critical condition, he cannot be spared either, as his presence is required in Camp. I have the honor, therefore, to request that Government will be pleased to direct Mr. Canendish to postpone taking privilege leave till the distress eases off.

OOTACAMUND,

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF JAIL'S OFFICE,

1891

My dear Mr. Price,

I have this morning received information by letter both from Mr. Cavendish ^{on the 4th inst} and Dr. Hackett Wilkins that they have respectively handed over the executive and medical charge of the Vellore Central Jail to Surgeon G. C. Hall.

I believe that Surgeon Hall proceeded to Vellore under instructions from the Surgeon Genl with Government, who recommended, by telegram on the 1st inst to the Private Sec^y to H.E. the Governor, that Dr. Hall should have charge of the Jail, leaving Dr. Wilkins the charge of the District. No orders on this recommendation have, however, yet been received, & no instructions were issued from this office ~~authorizing~~ directing the Supt. or medical officer to make over charge to Dr. Hall.

The Surgeon General's reasons for suggesting that Dr. Hackett Wilkins should have charge of the District & Dr. Hall of the Tail, were that the former had had previous famine experience, was acquainted with the District, & spoke Tamil fluently, while the latter does not fulfil any of these conditions. In these circumstances Col. McDonald Smith agreed that the arrangement proposed by the Surgeon General was preferable to the alternative of placing Dr. Hall in charge of the District.

As the transfer is now a fact accomplished, though apparently without due authorization, the Government may think it best to approve the arrangement proposed by the Surgeon General.

Yours sincerely
A. G. Cardew.

The Hon Mr. Price.

FOR ORDERS.

The best course would seem to be to send an experienced person on duty to duty & remain in the same office & remain in the same position until the person who is now on duty has been relieved. It is also possible to obtain a competent person from the military service & send him to the office. The person who is now on duty should be sent to the office & remain there until he is relieved. It is also possible to obtain a competent person

It is also possible to obtain a

The person who is now on duty
should be sent to the office & remain

As this has been agreed by the General & the Gov. and has been personally indicated to send out necessary

2 Sept.

As I understand it, the wishes of Dr. H. Wilkins is to take charge of the Yellow Tail during the absence on leave of Dr. Cavendish & to not be sent and to perform the duties of Dr. H. Wilkins during that time - another officer being sent to take medical charge of the Dr.
I have ascertained from the Acting Secy.
that Dr. H. Wilkins will be transferred for $100 a month. This consideration should however be weighed where the interests of the public service are held to be at stake.
Col. Smith has told me that Dr. Cavendish is not well and that it is necessary that he should be permitted to take his leave.
From the Acting Secy's letter to the General it will be seen that Dr. de Faber says that he has no other medical officer than Dr. Hall to send and that for reasons which he assigns he does not think that Dr. Hall can work efficiently as District Medical Officer of N. York.
The only course that I can suggest is that Dr. de Faber should be told to send to Hall to some other District and send the Office of that to N. York. As Dr. King is an experienced Officer might be sent from New Jersey. The latter seems the more preferable for the former would cause delay and it is rather doubtful whether any District within a reasonable time of N. York could send him now.
I also have the exchange of a medical officer known to for one who does not I do not know of Dr. Hall having
