GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From C. J. LYALL, Esq., C.I.E., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, 2nd December 1890, No. 2336.

As some inconvenience is experienced owing to the system adopted by the Government of Madras in forwarding papers to the Government of India, I am directed to invite attention to Home Department Resolution, No. 768, dated the 18th May 1877, and to express a hope that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, instructions may be issued to ensure close observance of the orders therein contained. The essential matter is that the point or points to which attention is to be directed should be clearly indicated in the letter, endorsement, or other communication addressed to the Government of India, and that a reference to the enclosures should not be necessary in order to ascertain what questions are submitted for decision, or what subjects have been communicated for information.

2. Proceedings forwarded with letters from the Government of Madras to the Government of India sometimes include reprints of communications already sent by the latter to the former, which needlessly encumber the case when it comes again under the consideration of the Government of India. I am to suggest that such papers may be removed from the file addressed to the Supreme Government, whenever this can be done without a reprint.

ORDER—dated 7th January 1891, No. 7, Public.

Calcutta, the 2nd December 1890.

SIR,

As some inconvenience is experienced owing to the system adopted by the Government of Madras in forwarding papers to the Government of India, I am directed to invite attention to Home Department Resolution No. 768, dated the 18th May 1877, and to express a hope that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, instructions may be issued to ensure close observance of the orders therein contained. The essential matter is that the point or points to which attention is to be directed should be clearly indicated in the letter, endorsement, or other communication addressed to the Government of India, and that a reference to the enclosures should not be necessary in order to ascertain what questions are submitted for decision, or what subjects have been communicated for information.

2. Proceedings forwarded with letters from the Government of Madras to the Government of India sometimes include reprints of communications already sent by the latter to the former, which needlessly encumber the case when it comes again under the consideration of the Government of India. I am to suggest that such papers may be removed from the file addressed to the Supreme Government, whenever this can be done without a reprint.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

C. J. Lyall

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.
