to the Rt. Hon'ble the Chief of State for India.

Dear Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your letter of the 8th ultimo and in reply to state that this Govt. would feel obliged if, in consideration of the ~~arrangements~~ for action now existing, arrangements could be made for forwarding one copy of the cases on either side in Privy Council appeals as soon as they are ready + ~~and~~ along with the judgment copy on the termination of the appeals.

Yours truly

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

The matter appears to stand as follows:-

At present two copies of each the printed cases are sent out after judgment.

The Honorable Mr. Gashin is of opinion that instead of this, one copy of the printed cases should be sent out as soon as they are lodged in the Council Office, and another after judgment is pronounced.

The Honorable Mr. Stokes thinks that one copy of each case as soon as filed ^{would be sufficient} ~~should be sent~~, and does not see the necessity for another copy after judgment.

May the paper be put in Council Box please?

C.S.

I have spoken to Mr. the says that he has no objection to Mr.
Mr. Gashin's proposal.

Submitted that the course suggested in para 2 of Mr. Pontefee's letter would be more advantageous than the one at present in force which is described in para 1 of his letter 28/8 submitted to the Hon. Mr. Justice on whose motion the reference was made 8/31 Aug

Yes - but the practice described in para 1 is continuing ^{also} and only that perhaps one copy of the case on either side might accompany the judgment. in 2? the full copy of each 'case' in advance & with the judgment has been proposed beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th ult. (Public R. 5690), enquiring whether arrangements could be made for the regular supply of copies of the Cases on either side in Privy Council appeals, - and in reply have to state that it has been the practice of this Office for many years to send out to the Govt concerned, on the termination of ~~the~~ appeal, that is to say after judgment has been delivered and the final order of Her Majesty in Council issued) at least two copies of the printed Cases of either side. This practice of course applies only to cases in which
