Re M^r. La Harrie's death

My dear Alice

I have just received telegrams about poor Luggish.

From what I can make out. It is just touch & go with him. It is a question whether his strength can possibly hold out against the strain on his constitution. It is also a question whether too much of the liver has not gone to allow of recovery.

I had heard nothing of him for four weeks & concluded that no news was good news until Wednesday to receive his mail & a telegram from his wife.

Wednesday & I met the steamer on ~~the~~ Thursday morning & brought him up as carefully as possible to the point at Harpitz where he was to land. The day being & his men possibly pull him through but I fear his chances are but poor.

Yours sincerely
W. H. H.
