Dated 18th September 1891.

No. 6752 Mis.

The Hon'ble Mr. J. Gower.
Mr. C. Mc Watters.

READ the following letter from V. A. Brodie Esq., Dy. Collector of South Canara, dated 11th September 1891, No. 3608.

Referring to G.O. dated 16th July 1891, No. 4059, Re: Departmental communication with Board's Proceedings, dated 29th idem, No. 534 Mis. I have the honor to request that early sanction may be obtained, in communication with the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, for the interment, from the 1st proximo, of one Muhammad Abdul Rahman who has been selected by the District Surgeon, as a suitable person to be trained for service as Hospital Assistant at Amiri.

2. The District Surgeon states that the young man has passed the requisite tests and is eligible for the Civil Hospital Assistant's grade.

Resolution

Submitted through the Surgeon-General for the early sanction of Government, with reference to Government order dated 16th July 1891, No. 4059.
