position of responsibility, nor does his indebtedness affect his efficiency. He is evidently untrustworthy, but I am not prepared to recommend that he should be removed from the service of Government and would submit that the suspension for 6 weeks which he has already undergone, may be regarded as a punishment for having submitted a false statement of his debts.

Mr. Highland was, at the same time, directed to report immediately the date on which the debt of Rs 112-13-0 was incurred and he was suspended pending the receipt of the report.

Although directed to submit the report immediately, he delayed doing so for 6 weeks.

3.

He now reports that the debt was contracted in April 1890, nine months before he submitted the schedule.

To account for the delay of 6 weeks in submitting the report, he states that he was making certain arrangements with his creditors.

Such an excuse cannot, of course, be accepted.

His present position appears to be,

SIR,

Reference, G.O. Public Department
No. 42, dated 15th January 1891,
passing orders on the indebtedness
of Compositor Mr. Highland, Central Survey Office.

I have the honor to report that when Mr. Highland submitted, in December 1890,

a schedule of his debts amount-

-ing to Rs 694-12-8, he omitted a sum of Rs 112-10-0.

He reported that this omission was due to failure of memory. He was informed that such an excuse could not be accepted, and that it was impossible that such a large item,
nearly three months' pay, could have escaped
his memory when making up a schedule of debts amounting to Rs 694-12-8.
