Submitted to the Honor. able Member.

The Govt. is to be given power to extend the provisions of India Act I of 1882 to particular districts in the Presidency. This is what was asked for in para: 4 of letter to India No. 680 of 12.8.89, and its consideration at some future date was promised in para: 4 of India's reply in G.O. of 13.11.89, No. 913.

Emigration to Assam is now carried out from the Vizagapatnam & Ganjam districts under Madras Act V of 1866. When the new act is promulgated the Govt. may desire to extend Act I of 1882 to those two districts and to repeal Act V of 1866.

It is submitted that no action on the telegram appears to be necessary - but copies of it might perhaps be furnished furnished to the collectors of Vizag & Ganjam.

70B. This seems no necessity to do
5/4. this & there is no hurry about the matters
