Emigration)

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your endorsement No. 673 Public of the 6th ultimo, forwarding report on returned emigrants from La Réunion by the French steamer Ville de Cadix.

2. The report it is observed is submitted by the Clerk in charge of the Consular Agency at Pondicherry, probably because a successor had not at the time been appointed to the office of consular agent which was vacated by Colonel Harris in April last. The Government of India consider

consider it of importance that the inspection of vessels bringing return emigrants from the French Colonies, and the report upon the health, treatment and condition of the coolies should be made, if possible, by an officer of standing who can be held responsible for the completeness and accuracy in every essential particular of the information supplied. With this object in view I am to suggest the desirability of avoiding as far as possible any delay between the delivery and receipt of charge by successive holders of the Consular Agency.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
