General, dt 11 August 1891 No. 2292-

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to inform the office at an early date, as to how long C. Adams should be considered to have been employed from 23rd May 1891, the date on which he gave over charge of his duties as Agt. Civil Surgeon, Coorg, to 8th July 1891, the date preceding that on the forenoon of which he joined the establishment of-acting Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum, Madras. If he was awaiting for orders, I request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of the Government of India to his availing himself of more than thirty days joining time vide article 198 of the Civil Service Regulations. Pending receipt of this sanction, I have admitted the claim of Surgeon Adams to his grade pay for the above periods.

To

Chief Secretary to Government
Public Department

SIR,

With reference to the enclosed copies of correspondence, I have the honor to request that under the provisions of articles 197 & 198 Civil Service Regulations the joining time of Surgeon C. Adams may be extended from 23rd May 1891 to 8th July 1891.

2. Surgeon Adams appears to have been detained at Bangalore in the interests of the public service with a view to prevent unnecessary transfers as it was probably then in contemplation to appoint him permanently to Mercara. As his detention therefore was through no fault of his own I trust Government will be pleased to protect him from loss of pay.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

W. J. de Saubert

Surgeon-General with the Govt. of Madras.

SIR,

In returning the correspondence referred to me with your endorsement CN: 2720 of the 21st September 1891, I have the honor to state for the information of Government that surgeon Adams did not report his relief at Mercara to this office, and it will be seen from para 3 of his letter of 17th August 1891 copy of which accompanies the correspondence that no such report was made by him to any other authority in Madras, beyond the reference made to the Secretary Principal Medical Officer, His Forces some weeks after his relief.

2. As regards para 1 of the endorsement, I would draw your attention to the telegram from Simla quoted in para 2 of Surgeon Adams's letter cited above which may be considered to explain the circumstances under which the services of Surgeon Adams were retained by the Government of India after his relief at Mercara. The reference from the Government of India regarding Surgeon

Wansden

Marsden alluded to in the telegram quoted above was disposed of in this Office letter N^o 76 and 784 dated 27th & 30th July 1891 respectively to your address recorded in G. O. N^o 680 Public of 8 August 1891 - Beyond these facts I repeat I have no other information on the subject.

Sir,

I am directed to forward for the orders of the Government ing letters from the Surgeon General with enclosures regarding his 22 Oct. the overstay of his joining time

He was appointed in Home Department Notification
No 76 dated 19th February 1891 to officiate as Civil Surgeon of Coorg, during the absence on privilege leave of Surgeon D. B.

Marsden. He gave over charge of his duties in Coorg on the 23rd May 1891 & having received no orders before leaving Madras reported himself in person to the Chief Commissioner's Office on arrival in Bangalore. The Secretary to the Chief Commissioner stated that he had telegraphed to Simla and after several visits Dr Adams received a copy of Home Dept telegram No 300 Medical stating that the Government of India was awaiting a reply to a reference made to the Madras Government regarding Dr Marsden's transfer.

Inferring

3 Inferring from this that he was still under the orders of the Government of India, Dr Adams waited in expectation of further orders but receiving none, wrote to Madras and was referred to the Civil Medical Department.
On arrival in Madras he was appointed to act as Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum; of which appointment he assumed charge on the 9th July 1891 in anticipation of his services being replaced at the disposal of the Govt, which fact was intimated in Home Department telegram No 400 dated the 21st idem. It will thus be seen that Dr Adams was unemployed from the 23rd May to 9th July 1891 and as this period exceeds the limit of 30 days prescribed in ^{Article} Section 198 of the C. S. Regulations

Regulations and orders Surgeon Admiral detention ^{is not in his interest} ~~interests of the public service~~ and occurred through no fault of his own I am directed to request that the Government of India will extend his joining time as required by the Accountant General.
