Sir,

at 228 of 21/10/90.

Sanitary. Your telegram of 22nd dated the 24th instant I am directed to say that the term "Indian gentleman" used in the Home Department is more properly noted includes only "natives".
It will be in the discretion of the Province the Governor is to recommend for the office of delegate to the International of Hygiene an Indian gentleman to Government service who he be considered the more suitable native delegate in the provinces. I am to add that the expenses to England of native delegates alone will be defrayed by the State, but definite orders cannot be issued in the names of persons recommended by the different local Governments who have been submitted and selected by the Government of India.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedt Servant,
