GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Ecclesiastical), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 26th October 1891, No. 3 Eccles.—322.

With reference to paragraph 2 of Home Department Circular, No. 2—246, dated the 11th August last, on the subject of the Bill to validate marriages certified under Part VI of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, XV of 1872, between persons only one of whom is a Native Christian, I am directed to say that, under the Bill as revised by the Select Committee, such marriages will only be validated if solemnized before the date on which the Bill may be passed, and not, as originally proposed, if solemnized within three months from its coming into force. It is anticipated that the Bill will be passed into law at one of the early meetings of the Legislative Council at Calcutta. I am to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, the change which the Select Committee have proposed in the Bill may be made as widely known as possible in the Madras Presidency.

ORDER—dated 7th November 1891, No. 939, Public.

Communicated to the Resident in Travancore and Cochin, all District Magistrates and all Missionary Societies, in continuation of G.O., dated 31st August 1891, No. 736, with the request that the modification of the instructions already issued may be made as widely known as possible.

2. G.O., dated 31st August 1891, No. 736 (without appendix), and the foregoing letter from the Government of India, will be published in the Fort St. George and all District Gazettes, for information of persons concerned.
