Petitioner's request is inadmissible. Orders on his case have already been passed.

DISPATCHED
Petitioner's copy note for C.S. 18/11 IN M.S.

The proposed reference was due to the fact that f.p. 8/9/91 no. 147 was not put up before and I was not aware of its existence. 7.10.13.

This is no longer connected with the Poll. Dept.
It is now an appeal for help & should I think be dealt with in the Public Dept.

with a view to G.O. dated 1st Sep. 1891, no. 543, Political.

Chief Secy.

The Honourable our said district and as we are now in great want of the common necessities of life, I therefore humbly submit to your Excellency's gracious consideration, as to bestow some Christiana charity for our maintenance, by which we may keep up our life and this Your Excellency's benevolent favour will not be forgotten by our poor labourers.

I beg to state, that during my 4 years of in Denmark, in Copenhagen I was sustained and supported by the late Kings of Denmark: King Frederik the 6th and Christian the 7th, and His most gracious Queen, Carolina Amalia, and enjoying the utmost military and civil honours, old and infirm age without respect of bettering my state through Your Excellency's and confidence that my humble will make with Your Excellency consideration.
