Submitted to Government.
Mr. R. B. Clegg is not entitled to an extension of subsidiary leave for 12 days, but it rests with Government to decide whether the circumstances under which he was prevented from embarking within his subsidiary leave amount to urgent and adequate reasons not within his control within the meaning of Article 354(b) of the Civil Service Regulations.

From Robert B. Legg Esq.
Asst. Collector - Sodavari (on furlough)
to the Chief Secretary to Government Madras
through the Collector of Malabar

Sir,

- I have the honor to request an extension of subsidiary leave for twelve days under the following circumstances:
1. Being sick I was permitted to hand over charge of the Sub Collectorship of Malabar on the afternoon of the 22nd January last.
 2. By a telegram dated Feb'y 2nd I was informed that furlough was granted and I was permitted to sail from Tellicherry.
 3. I accordingly sailed from Tellicherry by the next steamer on the 7th Feb'y. to Bombay, where I had to wait until the 14th Feb'y. for the mail steamer.
 4. Thus my subsidiary leave was exceeded by 12 days, although I was unable to embark from Bombay sooner.
 5. The Accountant General informs me that my furlough will in consequence begin from the 23rd January instead
