Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture).

Dated 3rd February 1892

No. 1249 Mis

READ ^{the following} letter from the Chief Clerk of the Insolvent Court dated 4th December 1891 No 38.

With reference to your letter^{*} No 56 Mis dated 30th November last, I have the honor to send herewith copies of Schedule, Balance Sheet and Discharge and the Copies of the records connected with the Case furnished by M. Soma Sundram Chetty for obtaining the benefit of the Insolvency Act. ^{copies of Schedule, Balance Sheet and Discharge and payment orders in the Insolvency of M. Soma Sundram Chetty, an account of your office.}

Resolution

With reference to Government Orders dated 17th November 1885 and 25th April 1891 Nos. 2649 and 331 respectively, the Board begs to submit for orders the Case of M. Somasundra Chetty, an accountant of this office on Rs 50, who has been granted the benefit of the Insolvent's Act.

2. This individual filed a petition for the benefit of the Insolvent's Act on 31st August 1891 and his name appeared in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 8th September 1891 page 1274 Part II. He had been previously granted sick leave, which expired on the 13th September last. He then wished to extend his leave but having failed to produce a medical certificate he was placed under suspension and granted subsistence allowance at $\frac{1}{4}$ of his pay. 1 Right

3. His total debts amount to Rs 12315-14-2 of which Rs 6830/- are secured secured chiefly by pledge of jewels.

None of his creditors having appeared to oppose his discharge, the Court has granted him the benefit of the Act and directed him to pay Rs 5 monthly towards the liquidation of his debts.

4. Somasundra Chetty explains that his debts were contracted solely for family purposes; viz Rs 3500/- in 1879 to clear the debts of his father who was then employed in the Board's office on a salary of Rs 50 a month and is now a Government pensioner; Rs 1500/- for his own marriage and other ceremonies in 1877 and 1879, and about Rs 3000/- in 1884 for the marriages of his sister and brother and the thread-wearing ceremony of another brother. The remainder of the debts he states was due to accumulation of interest.

He has not put in any evidence in support of his statements and the Board is of opinion that his insolvency was due entirely to his extravagance.

As, however, the Insolvent Court has taken a lenient view of his case and has decided that the very limited sum of Rs 5 (one-tenth of his salary) shall be deducted monthly, a deduction which will in no way cripple him as a public servant, the Board recommends his reinstatement but without arrears of pay.

He has drawn subsistence allowance of Rs 45 from the 13th September to the end of December 1891. (See copy and extract,

? but for the 50% his share in the subsistence allowance, as he is not a public servant.

In orders.

The case is fully stated in the Board's Resoln.
There seems to be a mistake in the amount of subsistence allowance.

The Bd. seems to take a more correct view of the case than I deserve. The man has evidently been paying rates for a long time in small sums.

The Board is very lenient but under the present policy I suppose their recommendation must be accepted.
