SIR,

With reference to your memorandum no. 332 dated the 22nd February 1892, I have the honor to state that if Mr.
Shipley be allowed the time admiss--ble to join the appointments of special Assistant, Godavari, and Principal Ass--tant, Vizagapatam, his overstayal would amount to two days only as shown thereby.

Submitting to Government for consideration of the Board L.R.
No. 709 of 22-2-92 and reporting on the appointment of the period from Mr. Shipley's making over charge of his office to relating it as joining time.

P. V. O.

No 332.

22/2/92

It is observed that under Article 204 of the Civil Service Regulations, the joining time of an officer whose appointment is changed while he is in transit, begins on the day following that on which he receives his orders.

Mr. Shipley's joining time between the appointments of Principal Assistant, Vizagapatam and Special Assistant, Godavari had not, it is believed, expired on the 7th January 1892, the date on which he received telegraphic intimation of his reappointment to Narasipatnam. His joining time would accordingly recommence on the 8th, and his overpayal apparently amounted to two days - 9th & 10th January.

The Sd/-s further remarks are requested.

N^o 465

Submitted to Government. Mr. R. H. Shipley on being relieved at Wallain of his acting appointment of Principal Assistant Collector, Vizagapatam, by Mr. H. G. Joseph on the forenoon of 21st December '91, reverted on his substantive appointment of Special Assistant Collector, Godavari; the time for joining that appointment at Wuddugudim, the head-quarter station, is 16 days excluding Sunday not actually spent in travelling. Mr. Shipley did not proceed to Wuddugudim, but remained at Wallain apparently to avail himself of the one month's privilege leave for which he applied and received there the charge of the office of Principal Assistant Collector, Vizagapatam, on the forenoon of 11th January '92, under Telegram from Government, dated 6th idem. In these circumstances, he should be regarded as on privilege leave from 21st December '91 to 9th January 1892, and on joining time on the 10th idem, as his acting appointment did not involve a change of residence and he was entitled to only one day's joining time, under Article 194 of the Civil Service Regulations.

2. If however, Government consider Mr. Shipley's stay at Wallain was to avoid his joining his substantive appointment for the public convenience so as to prevent unnecessary and merely formal transfers, he can be allowed joining time from the 21st December '91 to 10th January '92, under Article 198.
