Note Mr. A. T. Forbes has not passed the Higher Standard - it was hardly to be expected that he would as he returned from leave only in Decr. last. In G.O. of 20th November 1886 No. 2357 (re.
= produced in a posting on p. 21 of the Civil Service Manual) it is laid down that an Assistant who fails to pass according to the second standard
"within four years ~~in~~ service" will be suspended. Mr. Forbes completed four years ^{total} service on the 29th November 1891, his actual service up to date amounts however to only 2 years and 7 months. It would be, of course, singularly hard to bring him at present under the operation of the G.O. The point is however submitted as the G.O. in question is not over--carefully worded. Honorable 11/3/92 superior in interpreting it in cases of Messrs Scott Patridge & Deftinotons, where the terms of ^{this} four years laid down expired in November - ^{almost} grid. way between the dates of two examinations. If thus consider it necessary the question of the amendment of G.O. of 10. Nov. 1886. No. 2354 will be taken up separately.

The President reports that ~~Mr. Slight~~ ^{Mr. Slight} has passed the Higher Standard but cannot get the increased allowance as he has not yet gone through his training in Survey. It will be seen from the papers in G.O. of 31-12-90 No. 910 that the Gov. of S. Canara's proposals for attaching Mr. S. to a Survey party were approved, and in the "History of Services" Mr. Slight is shown as being attached to No. 4 Party from the 17. Decr 90. This point might be cleared up, or perhaps it will be as well to let Mr. Slight move in the matter himself. It will be losing Rs 175. p.m. so long as he does not go through the course & will doubtless come up on the point.

President, Board of Examiners.

I think L. S. L. to be allowed to the training period, which 3 years + 4 years actual service. H. V. W. to Mr.

Forbes' case shows, I think, that the intention of Govt. when it passed the G.O. referred was that "service" should mean actual service, as it is given without any demer to its being read in this sense.
