Public Department,

SIR,

With reference to Rule 5 of the rules under the Indian Treasure Trove Act VI of 1878 printed in Government order dated 7th September 1878 no 1300 I have the honor to submit the following case for the orders of Government.

2. On 22nd March 1891, 37 small gold coins like chilli seeds with two small pieces of silver, all valued about Rs 12, were found enclosed in a copper cup without a lid by one Ravadei in puttah field no 536 and 537 in the village of Mathur in the Vriddhachalam Taluk.

3. The usual notice was duly published in the Gazette. Yesterday was the day fixed for Enquiry. The finder as well as the owner of the land appeared before me. After hearing them, I have declared
