From J. P. Hewitt Esquire
Calcutta

Submitted that the following order may now be endorsed on Mr.
Mishra's petition in G.O. 1501 of 7. 7. March 1892.
The Memorialist will be informed that his request
"cannot be granted"

It is understood that nothing has been said in the order of the second request - viz Special promotion as the point is one on which Govt. is obviously unable to pass orders in advance of the Memorialist is at any time nominated for special promotion by the President, the question will arise - not before.

Calcutta the 26th March 1892

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of 15th Public dated the 4th instant on the subject of the promotion of Statutory Civilians in the Madras Presidency I am desired to say that the practice in Madras of considering the claims to advancement of statutory Civilians with reference to the date on which they were confirmed is correct, and that this point will be made clear in a Resolution on the recommendations of the Public Service Commission in respect of the Executive and Judicial services which the Government of India expect to issue next month.

In view of this circumstance the Government of India do not propose to issue any official orders on your letter of 4th instant.

Yours truly,
J. P. B. Smith.

To the Honble F. F. Price
Chief Secy to the Govt of Madras
