GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From M.R.Ry. S. SRINIVASA RAGHAVAIYANGAR, Avargal, Dewan Bahadur, Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Kuppam, 4th March 1892, T. No. 26.

I have the honour to submit, for the orders of Government, the accompanying letter from Mr. W. Baylis, resigning his appointment as Marriage Registrar of the Chingleput district notified in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 13th October 1891 on the ground that there is no remuneration attached to the performance of the responsible duties connected with the office.

2. It seems to me that non-official registrars of marriages should receive some remuneration for the duties which they are called upon to perform. In the table given under Head V of the rules sanctioned by Government under the Christian Marriage Act, it is provided that the fees levied by Marriage Registrars must be paid into the Government Treasury and that fees levied by other persons may be retained by them. The Government of India, in their notification, dated 26th January 1892, published in the Gazette of India, have permitted Marriage Registrars in the Mysore State to retain for their own use any fees which they may collect in connection with the exercise of their functions. This concession, I submit, may be extended to non-official registrars in the Madras Presidency and Native States under the control of the Madras Government.

ORDER—dated 26th April 1892, No. 276, Public.

Mr. Baylis' resignation is accepted. The District Magistrate will take over the duties in accordance with section 7, Act XV of 1872, and will nominate a successor as soon as possible. His attention will be invited to G.O., dated 22nd November 1890, No. 793, and G.O., dated 29th July 1891, No. 637.

2. The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George and all District Gazettes :—

NOTIFICATION.

Under the provisions of sections 83, 84 and 86 (as amended by section 10 of Act II of 1891) of Act XV of 1872 (the Indian Christian Marriage Act) and in supersession of previous orders on the subject, the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that, from and after the date of this notification, Marriage Registrars for Districts or for Native States situated within or bordering on the limits of the Madras Presidency who are non-officials, i.e., not in the service of the British Government, may retain for their own use any fees levied by them under Head V of the rules made under Act XV of 1872 as amended by Act VI of 1886. The authority of Marriage Registrars to remit a portion of the fees in cases where the parties are unable to pay the whole will not be affected by this ruling.

The Honorable J. F. Price.

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Fort St. George.

Kuppam, the 4th March 1892.

I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government the accompanying letter from Mr. W. Baylis resigning his appointment as Marriage Registrar of the Chingleput District, notified in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 13th October 1891 on the ground that there is no remuneration attached to the performance of the responsible duties connected with the office.

2. It seems to me that non-official Registrars of marriages should receive some remuneration for the duties which they are called upon to perform. In the table given under Head of the rules sanctioned by Government under the Christian Marriage Act, it is provided that the fees levied by Marriage Registrars must be paid into the Government Treasury and that fees levied by other persons may be retained by them. The Government of India in its notification no.

dated 26th January 1901 published in the Gazette of India, has permitted the Marriage Registrars in Mysore State to retain for their own use any fees which they may collect in connection with the exercise of their functions.
This concession may be extended to marriage Registrars in the Madras Presidency and Native States under the Madras Government.

Yours faithfully,
Your obedient servant
