Public Works Department.
Madras, April 20, 1892.

No 2074C.

— NOTE. —

In G.O. No 789 dated 21st November 1890 (Public) the cases of several employees of the Public Works Department, who were in a state of chronic indebtedness, were dealt with. As regards Mr S. T. Roberto, one of the persons concerned permission was granted for his retention in the service, subject to report, at the end of a year, on the condition of his affairs. The report was thus due in November last, but it could not then be submitted as Mr Roberto's case was at the time before the Insolvent Court.

2. Mr Roberto has since been granted a discharge. His schedule has been obtained from the Registrar and is herewith submitted.

3. Before proceeding into the consideration of the present schedule, it should perhaps be mentioned that Mr. Roberts passed through the Insolvent Court on a former occasion viz. in April 1887, when debts amounting to £1119 were remitted; the total sum borrowed between 1882 and that date having been £2488. Mr. Roberts had, in accordance with the rules then in force, been placed under suspension pending the decision of Government on his case. G.O. No. 753 dated 22^d June 1887, Public, restored him to his appointment.

4. It would appear from the accompanying analysis of his present schedule, that shortly after his restoration Mr.
Roberts commenced to borrow again. At the end of 1889, the borrowings became frequent, and during the whole of 1890 and the first quarter of 1891, they were incessant. Some of his loans have been contracted in a most reckless manner. He has on several occasions signed Ex-Notes for ten times the amount of the sum actually received.

5. His schedule debts amount to £2747:2:10; and the analytical statement attached shows progressively when they were contracted, their amount; and where the schedule affords the information, the cash actually received in exchange for the Ex. Notes.

6. After a careful review of the case, the undersigned is unable to make any recommendation on Mr. Roberts' behalf, but submits for such consideration consideration as the Government may be pleased to accord to it, an appeal which Mr. Roberts ^{x dated} has addressed to the undersigned 13th April 1892

Yours truly

Secretary to Gov. F.W.S.
