Order

His Excellency the Governor.
Council is pleased to permit Mr.
Mir Shujat Ali to resign his appointment in the statutory Civil Service.

Note.

At first sight this appears to be hardly in accordance with the rules of a majority in Council, as Mr. the Gov. does not directly state with the Hon. Mr. Stokes in regard to refusing to grant leave without pay. The Hon. Mr. Justice will however see that § 2 of the draft is so worded as to evade the point, & to leave it open to Mr.
Shujat Ali, if he can persuade the Mysore Durbar to dispense with the condition of his resigning, to come up again.

2. As it appears from Mr.
Shujat Ali's letter to the Private Secretary dated 7 April that the offer he has received of employment under the Mysore Durbar is contingent on his resigning service under the Madras Govt, the consideration of the grant of extraordinary leave without allowance is unnecessary.

3. In accepting Mr. Mir Shujat Ali's resignation the Govt. ^{with pleasure in} ~~considers~~ ^{under it} that his service ~~under it~~ has been satisfactory.

I have already stated that in my former letter I thought Mr. Hunt was to give leave to much time to take up service with the Union, but that he could never resign the British service if he likes. I have no objection to the Co-existence of his service under the United States and have been satisfactory

- 14 Apr

 Don't give him the leave he asks for. Don't think of him with leave but with insistence on his entering absolutely.
 If he does so, let him resign & give him a testimonial of good service

Forwarding His Highness Ali Khan's application for extraordinary leave or permission to retire R 7/4.

Circulated

xx letter to W. H. Carr one was the one we rather puzzled for it - In one place the writer says he is compelled to resign the British service & then he asks for leave as - to serve in Mysore & finally says Mysore suits him to resign & take only leave from 1881 & then he does not say I don't think Mysore left open to his service while on furlough was British officer - so I think we may safely offer him the leave he asks for. We won't put our hands into a mine. JHJ 12/4/92

Apparently it would not suit anyone to take him straight off - unless he were free, and had our assurance that he had left our service with our permission. So I think it wd. be best for us to accept his resignation though I have no objection - if it will be any advantage to him, and does not imperil his prospects in Mysore to give him a year's leave without allowances. But as I understand the position - this cannot be done, unless Mysore consents. W
 16 April.

I think Shriant also should not be sent to leave to him. I like leave with Mysore, and I think it desires to let him stay in Mysore the British service. He cannot take employment in Mysore, unless with allowances, without the official sanction of the Govt of India, and I don't think he should be given leave without being sent to him to do so.
 Now as I am moving to Mysore, I think that should sanction should be given. He must choose between us & Mysore. JHJ
 10th April

I'd give him S. H. Khan furlough for a year without allowances & the small leave to take service in Mysore if it was any use to him, because of consideration, but from the last sentence of his letter to the Govt. I gather that he may one day want him to choose between them & we finally now & that it is a hard task to put to him taking him that he does so with H.E. the Govt's approval - & that even it wd. be all giving him leave with 12/4/92 and 12/4/92

I have in coming here that inconvenient time which I am extremely sorry for a favorable opportunity as I am this letter & to beg you to place it before him & when you find him at home.

my services & deserves some recognition. I beg His Excellency to grant me a year's furlough (which I am entitled to with permission to take up service elsewhere. If I do not deserve so much relaxation I shall be content of the Govt. be pleased to give me _____ for a year or two in loss of pay which the rules permit & which will enable the Govt. to take me on if their final decision about my memorial be favorable to me.

I intend seeing the over my papers to him.

In conclusion I beg to inform His Excellency & the Mysore Durbar that His Excellency may remember my memorializing the Govt. his kind & gracious suggestion I sent my memorial at the 13th of Jan. In the meantime I found that my only chance of getting suitable employment elsewhere was passing as I was therefore I had His Excellency's kind permission to resign case the Govt. should find it possible or convenient to give me the desired relief I wrote to the Mayor to find out if it would employ me. It has offered to take me as a Deputy Com. at $1000 a year to begin with, with 10 years service to my credit & the same pension & have considered here. I received the offer on the 13th March but as I had not heard in reply to my memorial & as my writing to the Govt. might simply seem to imply without any intention a desire to precipitate the decision of the Govt. I have put off writing. But the Govt. is now pressing me for a definite answer & I find it impossible to wait any longer. With much regret I find myself compelled to decide to resign with His Excellency's permission. I have served the Govt. faithfully fully for 15 years. If I go now I go without a pension. If the Govt. be pleased to consider offered to take me on condition of my resigning with ^{His} Excellency's approval. My last prayer is that some be found & I may be allowed to go as soon as possible.
