Madras 24 June 1892

Colonel & Meldon

Comptroller of Police
Madras

Dear Sir

I am referring to your remarks on the Comptroller's order directing one month of my pay being deducted out of my salary and the same being remitted to the benefit of small causes. I beg most respectfully to bring to your Honour's kind notice the circumstances under which I am unavoidably compelled to compound the debt.

From my wife has been attacked with paralysis and lying for the last 3 years. To secure her suitable medical aid and to render her as much convenience as possible and to procure proper nursing from time to time as the state of her health and of my position would require and to give scope for relatives to come and attend.
