SUBJECT.

Requests to inform in whether he can enter Govt. Service in after his removal from it in consequence of his having obtained benefit of the Insolvency Act.

4/5/92 No 302 D.M.G.

H.M.

For orders. The point does not seem to have been settled before He closes all his previous service - 17 years.

20/3
30/5

The man has been removed from one branch of the service on the ground of his being unfit to remain in the same on account of the long in which he incurred debt. It is submitted that of he is unfit to remain in one branch of the service he is unfit to enter another. It is however unlikely that any head of and Office would take him

31 May

I think that removal from the service for insolvency is final and that a man who has obtained
cannot be re-accepted into any other branch.

H.M.

I agree with the C. I. that if a man is unfit, though unfit to remain in one branch of the service, he is unfit to remain in another, the service is provided for the purpose of the insolvent, and the man is not to be re-accepted into the service.
