3. In connection with the present claim, I would observe that Mr. Henderson is a Military Medical Subordinate, who while in Civil Employment at Chicacole proceeded on sick leave and on the expiration of it and without resuming charge took steps to be invalided under the Military rules. He was, however, pronounced fit for duty by the Medical Board, and ordered to rejoin his appointment at Chicacole. In these circumstances, and as during sick leave, Apothecary Henderson resorted to the Military Department (in which Department, he was also paid his leave allowance) I am of opinion that the travelling allowances, if granted, for appearing before the District Surgeon and the Medical Board at Madras, should properly be a charge against the Military Department, and that the Civil Department is liable for the salary of the Apothecary only from the date of the order directing him to rejoin Chicacole.

Sir,

In forwarding letter c V: 786 dated the 12th of November 90 from the Surgeon General with the Government of Madras, submitting Correspondence, regarding the claim to travelling allowances of Apothecary H. Henderson for a journey made by him to appear before a Medical Invaliding Board at Madras, I have the honor to state that there is no provision in the Civil Service Regulations for the grant of travelling allowance in such cases, and that Article 1250 A, is applicable only to the North Western Provinces and Oudh.

2 In order c V: 1712 dated 4th November 1890, Judicial Department, Government has referred to the Government of India a similar claim preferred in the Police Department.
