greater exertion shown on the Ceylon side in the securing of labour in connexion with the opening of new estates and the general development of the tea industry. Improved facilities have also been provided in Ceylon for the transport of the Coolies from the seaports to the estates in the interior.

3. With regard to the increase in the figures of immigration, it is observed that the immigrants are generally speaking merely returned emigrants. After the tea season is over, they return in large numbers to cultivate their own fields or labour in the fields of others. Immigration therefore to a great extent follows the fluctuations of emigration; and if the Indian season turns out favourable, as was the case of the latter part of 1891 in this district, the inflowing tide will be still higher.

G. S. Forbes, Esq. C.S.

Read the following letter from G. S. Forbes, Esq., Collector of Tinnevely, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Salt, Alibari and Separate Revenue, Madras, of 3rd June 1892,
No 381.

I have the honor to reply to paras 14
and 16 of Board's Proceedings No 255, dated 11th May 1892, regarding the causes of the large increase under "Emigration" and "immigration" in 1891, as compared with the return for the previous year.

2. One of the main causes of the increase in the Emigration figures was, no doubt, the unfavorable character of the season of 1890
with the prospects of another season of distress in 1891. In addition, there has been of late
