STRATTON
MICHELDEVER STATION,
December, 30th 1885.

DEAR SIR,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, of the 23rd of November and I much regret to learn of the loss you have suffered by the premature removal of your son who was usefully employed in Public Service.

I shall have much pleasure in forwarding your letter to the VICEROY, and in calling His Excellency's attention to your request on behalf of your second son—

It is, however, impossible for me to say, whether LORD DUFFERIN will have an opportunity of offering employment in the Public Service to him or to your son-in-law; for this must depend upon circumstances and upon the claims of others.

I am yours faithfully,
(Sd.) NORTHBROOK.

DEAR SIR,

In reply to your letter of the 5th Instant which has just reached me I have to inform you that the VICEROY has no intention of visiting Hyderabad for the present.

Your letter was duly forwarded by LORD NORTHBROOK to the VICEROY, and I have communicated your requests to Mr. Cordery for his favorable consideration. As far as I am aware the VICEROY has at present no appointment in his gift for which the services of your son or son-in-law could be made available. For the statutory Civil Service the appointment practically with the local government, and the VICEROY confirms the candidates proposed.

Yours faithfully,

the Viceroy to admit your son-in-law

arranged about the future
