Copy of para 75 - Chapter II - Genl. of India
J. W. G. Code - Vol. I.

Executive Engineers will prepare designs and estimates under the orders of the Superintending Engineer, but they may also prepare and submit to the Supty. Engineer any design and estimate on the requisition of the Local authorities, Civil or Military, provided the work be one of the necessity for which they themselves are concerned at the request of the Executive Engineer, the Supty. Engineer should transmit to the Chief Eng. in original shape, and the former has submitted. This however, will in no way relieve the Executive Engineer from the duty of modifying his projects in accordance with the directions of the Supty. Engineer.

Notacament
OFFICE OF INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS, 6th July 1892.

From

A. G. Cardew Esquire M.A.C.S.

To

Ag: INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF JAILS,

THE Chief Secretary to Government
Port of George

SIR,

With reference to G.O. 27th June 1892, No 433, Public, I have the honor to state that in a letter dated the 4th May last, No 2354 C, the Chief Engineer P.W.D wrote - "The P.W. Code of the Local Government is to be superseded as soon as copies of Volume I of the Government of India Code are distributed to the Department."
As a copy of the Government of India P.W. Code has since been distributed, it was supposed that the Madras P.W. Code was now superseded.

2. Rule 75, Chapter III of the Government of India P.W. Code seems to be in direct conflict with the Rule 987 of the Madras P.W. Code

I have the honor to request that I may be informed whether the Government India P.W. Code or that hitherto in force in this Presidency, is now authoritative. I venture also respectfully to point out that though the rule 987 of the latter Code may in a few cases save the Public Works authorities from the preparation of estimates for works which the Government may afterwards consider unnecessary, it will involve extra correspondence, additional labour to Government, and delay in every other case.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

R. G. Lardner

Note by Chief
Engineer P.W. Dept

The Govt of India
P.W. Code will be authoritative from the 1st August 1892.

2. In the cases cited by the Acting Inspector General of Jails there is no conflict between the provisions of the Code, and of the Madras P.W. Code.

3. Para 75, Chapter
III of the Govt of India
to be responded.

para 289 of the Madras Code, and
para 989 of the
Madras Code corresponds with para 36
Chap. VIII Code of India
Code.

4. Further, the provisions of para 75, Chap. III of the Code of India Code do not appear to be in conflict with the provisions of para 36 Chap. VIII of the same Code.

5. Under the first
mentioned para the
Ex. Engineer prepares designs and estimates
for the necessity which he is

as for instance,
provision of a well
to obtain an more supply of water to a
jail population.
6. But the extension of a ward to accommodate an increased number of prisoners
would not, of his own cognizance
be a necessity, and such a proposal
would be dealt with in accordance with the second mentioned para of the Code of India Code.
