In submitting for an order certain correspondence relating to an attempt of Cheating by one Raju Chetti, an Inspector of the Maistry

College of Engineering.

For order

Even section 102 I.P.C. (second part) is probably not wide enough to cover this offence & as the Sd. says neither Cheating nor Forgery seems to have been committed;
the only course to take appears therefore to be that recommended by the D.P.I.

SIR,

I have the honor to report that one S. Raju Chetti who attended the Maistry and Artisan Class in 1891, wrote on 2nd April last to the Chief Engineer Public Works Department Burma, applying for employment as a Suboverseer, and enclosing what purported to be a true Copy of the Certificate he received from this College.

2. His letter contained the following deliberate falsehood:— "I have just passed out as a Suboverseer from the Madras Civil Engineering College, and a copy of my Certificate is herewith enclosed." 3. The Certificate he forwarded was not a true copy of the Certificate given him

him, but contained direct misstatements.
The two certificates are here given side by side.
