I have not heard of any difficulty to the Board giving sides to the Bill. I think we might have something more definite than the Bill. I am sure as to the Bill. I am before we act. We have a great deal of the process done in the Bill. I am of the Board, but I am sure I am a very clear idea of what it consists in. I am certainly do not see much in the way of difficulty.

I would tell Mr. Stokes that if the facts before us were definite, we could with the state of work in the Board, we should see about putting in a man on the civil duty. I think the best.

on the heavy work devolving on glad that if you put before Govt.

some definite reasons connected

My dear Fulton

On the morning of Dec 1, 1891, there were 2023 papers undisposed of in the Land Rev. Dept. of the Board, thus:—

For: orders 130, 4 over 6 months, 2 over 1 year

Letters from } 1359, 156 over 6 months, 270 Subordinates } over 1 year

Petitions 347, 5 over 6 months, 1 over 1 year

Periodicals 187
2023

This morning, 8 months later, the figures are:—

Post Orders	¹³⁰ 175,	9 over 6 months, 4 over 1 year
Letters from Subordinates }	¹⁸⁴⁷ 1817,	248 over 6 months, 355 over one year.
Petitions	²¹⁷ 505,	12 over 6 months, 2 over one year Periodicals	¹⁸⁷ 638,	49 over 6 months, 1 over one year.

Total 3135

Two months excepted, the above increase has been contributed to in every month since Decr. last.

I think it right to bring the facts to the notice of Govt, and to ask whether, pending the settlement of the question whether an Assistant Secretary is to be appointed, some measure cannot be put on special duty in the office for six months to help clear off the arrears. If not, not only must the arrears remain, but I fear they will increase.

Yours sincerely
H. W. Hild

to our officers leaving deputations to him but it will be no use sending any one but a subaltern and with some experience of Secretariat work

Yes. In a private letter to Mr. W. Blair says that an officer? If an officer it will be with the best of staff? Standing to the presumption of the D.S. and to submit paper
drawn to them here.
I can't suggest any officer unless Mr. Blair is chosen. I am

Blair is a very able and highly intelligent young man (with) and speaks

I do not see any help for it, but to send the best young man we can in at once, and I do not know of one more capable than Levy. His place will have to be taken for two months by a deputy collector.

Resubmitted with reference to Mr. Levy has had no Secretariat experience, but he is a smart officer & I cannot object to him.

I should like for information of Mr. Blair for future use to mention that Mr. Blair as for Mr. Levy's pay, I suppose we can give him deputation allowance, at say 7 Rs a day, in addition to his present pay at a subaltern rate. 10 Aug.

He will be available as his services in his present office are no longer required

9 Aug.

Before the 10th inst. in the Office on 10th inst. A General Order was transmitted from the Rev. Dept.

As it appears to contain the information which was required by Govt. it is submitted for order.

There is at present no officer available unless Mr. Stokes is sent from Bellary to work in the B. D. Office until the 15th inst.
from which date on 10th inst.

Mr. Stokes is nominated to the duty of writing the Annual Report. His services will probably be required in the Chief Secretariat.

No officer is likely to be able to be rendered available by returning from furlough or privilege leave but Mr. Oldfield and some of the Asst. Secys to him may have passed the leave held last month and it may then be possible to find a man to take Mr. Stokes place in the B. D. Office.

9 Aug.

With reference to the Hon'ble Secy. H. Stokes' remark about deputation allowance to Mr. Levy. please see § 98(a) of the C. S. R. Mr.
Levy can at most receive Rs 760 (his present salary) + $\frac{1}{5}$ of 760 = 152 = Rs 912 p.m.
