[Despatch Abstract.] :

*Extending the working time of all
S. Division staff
Collectors Amantapur*

Atnantapur
13th January 1892

To
The Chief Secretary to Government through the Collector of Atnantapur

Sir

With reference to the Accountant General's Audit Slip No. A.B.H. dated 7th January 1892, a true copy of which ⁵² is appended hereto, I have the honour to request you to be good as to move Government with a view to my obtaining its orders extending my joining time until the forenoon of the 10th inst. the date on which I actually reported myself to my Collector - or until the 11th inst.
whichever date is necessary in view of the fact of the 10th being a Sunday.

My previous charge, - Preparation of the Annual Residency Administration Report - ceased on the 15th December & the ordinary joining time from Madras to Atnantapur is 11 days. On the ^{17th} ~~16th~~ December I obtained your verbal permission to avail myself of the Christmas holidays & you then told me that it was uncertain whether I should return to Atnantapur at all the question of my destination being at that moment before Government. I spent the holidays at Ootacamund & on the 28th or 29th Dec^r wrote you asking leave to remain on there until my destination was settled. On the 30th Govt passed orders directing me to complete the prescribed courses in Survey & Settlement at once; (P.O. of 30th December 1891 No 10.55) & a copy of the order reached me on the evening of the 15th January

I wrote to you the same evening asking to be attached to the Survey Party at work in Malabar & to be allowed to join directly from Ootacamund & telegraphed to the same effect in the morning of the 2nd. Your answering telegram directing me to return to Madras reached me the same afternoon & I left Ootacamund on the following day (3rd inst.) & arrived in Madras on the 4th. On the 5th I went to see you & received your verbal orders to return to Brantford - to be attached to the Survey Party at work in that District. I left Madras on the 8th & I arrived here in the morning of the 10th. Until the receipt of the Accountant General's Audit slip, I was under the impression that my joining time would reckon from the date of your orders of the 5th inst. In any case, excluding the Christmas holidays, to avail myself of which I received your express permission, I arrived in Brantford within the period of my joining time; for, excluding Sundays, the 4 days - 10th to 19th December - & the 6th days - 4th to 9th January - i.e. in all 10 days for my joining time's paper which I have utilized - or one day less than the amount to which I was entitled. I was under the impression that public holidays were not a matter of course excluded in the calculation of joining, but as I can find nothing in the Civil Service Regulations to justify my impression, I presume in error & the express permission of the Local Government is required under Art. 198 of the Regulations.
 I have the honour to be, Sir, your most obedient servant
 Lionel Davidson

Acctt. Genl's office
 Dated 7 January 1892

Mr Davidson is informed that his salary bill for December 1891 has been passed subject to his obtaining the orders of Govt. extending his joining time up to the 9th January 1892 under Art. 198 of the Civil Service Regulations. If this is not obtained he will be considered to have overstayed his joining time from 27th December & his pay from that date will be retrenched

As the overstaying of his joining time to Mr. Davidson was due to the uncertainty regarding his destination after the completion of the Annual Administration Report, & the Governor-in-Council is pleased, under the provisions of § 198 of the C. S. Regulations, to extend ^{that officer's} his joining time to the 9. January 1892.
