The notes under Article 223 C.I.R.
 I think the principle embodied in Article 449 is of general application and the number of General officers allowed to remain in charge of duties for which he has been designated to be unexceptionable.

Dear Pina I notice that the article of Lord Lord. Rogers under which I write speaks of the officer obtaining "permission to resign the service". So I sup. the gov^t can fix date for that resignation, & that he cannot do his own duty except in accordance with rules or by order.

Yours sincerely
