Civil servants

Permitting Mr H. T.
Knox to retire from the Indian Civil Service & admitting him to an annuity of £450.

Proceedings of the Civil Medical Board held at the Office of Surgeon General on Saturday the 16th January 1892.

The Committee have carefully examined Mr. H. J. Knox son of

of the Madras Civil Service. His age is, by his own statement, 48 years and by appearance about 53 years. We consider him to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in consequence of nervous debility, the result of repeated attacks of illness commencing approx with his service in the Vizagapatam District 1880

His incapacity does not appear to us to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Disease Nervous Exhaustion

Previous History; In February 1878, patient suffered from severe nervous exhaustion and was sent home on medical certificate for two years. Again, on the 9th February 1881 was invalided for general break up of constitution, Malaria and abscess of left knee and was sent home for nearly three years.

He returned to India in December 1883 and was obliged to take special leave for ill health for six months from February 1887. After his return he served for about 15 months and again suffering from nervous debility had to be sent home for two years. Returned finally to India on 8th November 1890.

Present state The principal complaint is nervous exhaustion - much of the kind for which patient was invalided in 1888. There is incapacity for sustained mental labor; severe headaches supervene on the conduct of judicial work or indeed any mental strain. The general health has been on the whole fair - with the exception of sinuses near the left knee joint and which have - in spite of treatment at home and in India - remained open. The nature and quantity of discharge varies with the patient's general health and the amount of exercise taken.

For some months past the patient has experienced increasing difficulty in discharging his duties as a Justice and Sessions Judge and cannot do now without considerable discomfort.

Further he has begun to lose confidence in his power of concentrating attention on judicial proceedings. He has struggled hard against his disability; but has now arrived at the conclusion that he cannot do so any longer with safety and in this opinion I agree with him.
Accordingly I recommend his retirement from the Service and subjoin a form certificate.
